

18 Big New Acts; Thriller Every One, At Y. M. C. A. Circus

If these were any appropriate acts which P. T. Barnum neglected to incorporate in "the greatest show on earth," they will be seen tonight at the Young Men's Christian Association when the first performance of the annual indoor circus will be given in the men's gymnasium. The circus will be repeated tomorrow night.

With a crack of his whip, which is an essential article of every real sure-nough ringmaster, Prof. Maurice E. Joyce will start things going promptly at 7:30 o'clock and for two hours or more there will be so many amusing features that anyone who sees half the performance will get his money's worth. Just like every big show, the performance will start with a grand march around the gymnasium, thus giving the audience a first "glimpse" of the array of talent that has been engaged for the occasion. There will be acrobats, gymnasts, clowns, dancers, jugglers, aerial performers, "rube" band, and hippodrome acts and races.

Scheduled as one of the star attractions in the troupe of parallel and horizontal bar performers from the Columbia Turnverein. August Deuringer and Fred Ridel, members of the troupe, have a barrel jumping act that promises to be a thriller. They do "stunts" with barrels that would put to shame many of the professional performers on the stage.

Altogether there are eighteen acts, the performance including with a ball, let called the "Dance of the Jumping Jacks." The dancers have been specially trained for the occasion by the physical directors of the troupe. Then there will be a grand finale, a group of Y. M. C. A. Company, National Guard.

The proceeds of the circus will be added to the furnishing fund of the leaders' clubroom.
